Le dictionnaire des villages de Donga - Mantung comprend la liste des villages du département , telle qu'elle figure sur les recensements administratifs les plus récents. Les noms de villages ont été enregistrés au magnétophone par des personnes parlant les langues locales et transcrits suivant l'orthographe la plus proche possible de la prononciation.

Les chiffres de populations proviennent du recensement administratif de 1970. Celui-ci ne mentionne pas la population des quartiers, pour lesquels on a retenu les chiffres d'un recensement plus ancien (1968). Il en résulte des distorsions entre la population totale actuelle du village et celle résultant de l'addition des quartiers.

Les villages ont été portés sur la carte hors-texte d'après les feuilles à 1/200.000 NKAMBE et BANYO de l'Institut Géographique National.

La liste des équipements a été fournie par les services de la Préfecture, de la Santé, de l'Education et du Développement communautaire.

Nous remercions ici tous ceux qui ont apporté leur amicale collaboration à la préparation de ce dictionnaire, en particulier M. NGALLA, professeur de géographie à l'Université qui a bien voulu réviser la liste des noms de lieux.

Nous serions reconnaissant à tous les utilisateurs de ce document de nous signaler les erreurs ou omissions qu'ils pourront y trouver.

Jacques CHAMPAUD
avec la collaboration de
Hubert ELINGUI.

This Longa-Mantung gazetteer of villages contains the list of villages in the division, as shown by the most recent administrative census. The names of villages were recorded with a tape-recorder by persons speaking the local language and transcribed using a spelling that approximates as closely as possible to the local pronunciation.

The population figures are taken from the 1970 administrative census. This does not indicate the population of the quarters and for this, the figures of a previous census (1968) were adopted. There are accordingly some differences between the present total population of a village and that resulting from the addition of the quarters.

Villages have / indicated on the map using the NKAMBE and BANYO sheets (scale 1/200 000), compiled by the Institut Géographique National, as a basis.

The list of equipment has been supplied by the Prefecture and the Health, Education and Community Development services.

We wish to thank here all those who gave us their friendly collaboration in preparing this gazetteer, particularly Mr. NGALLA, professor of geography at the University, who consented to review the names of villages.

will

We shall be grateful if all persons using this work / advise us of any errors or omissions they may find.

ORGANISATION ADMINISTRATIVE.

Le département de Nkambé constitua d'abord une "division" de l'ancienne province de Bamenda. En 1963 (décret 63/DF/25 du 26 Juillet) fut crée l'arrondissement de NWA et en 1966 (décret 66/DF 432 du 26 Août) celui de NKAMBE.

Le département reçut la nouvelle dénomination de Donga et Mantung en 1968 (décret 68/DF/509 du 30 décembre). Lors de la réorganisation administrative de 1972 (décret 72-349 du 24 Juillet), l'ancien état du Cameroun Occidental fut partagé en deux provinces, celle du Nord-Ouest (Chef-lieu Bamenda) et celle du Sud-Ouest, la première englobant le département appelé désormais Donga-Mantung.

Trois conseils existent dans le département : Mbembe-Misaje qui a son siège à AKWETO et WIMBUM, à MBIYEH, l'un et l'autre étant dans l'arrondissement de NKAMBE. Celui de NWA a le même ressort que l'arrondissement du même nom. Le tableau suivant résume cette organisation administrative complétée par les noms des tribunaux coutumiers et des clans.

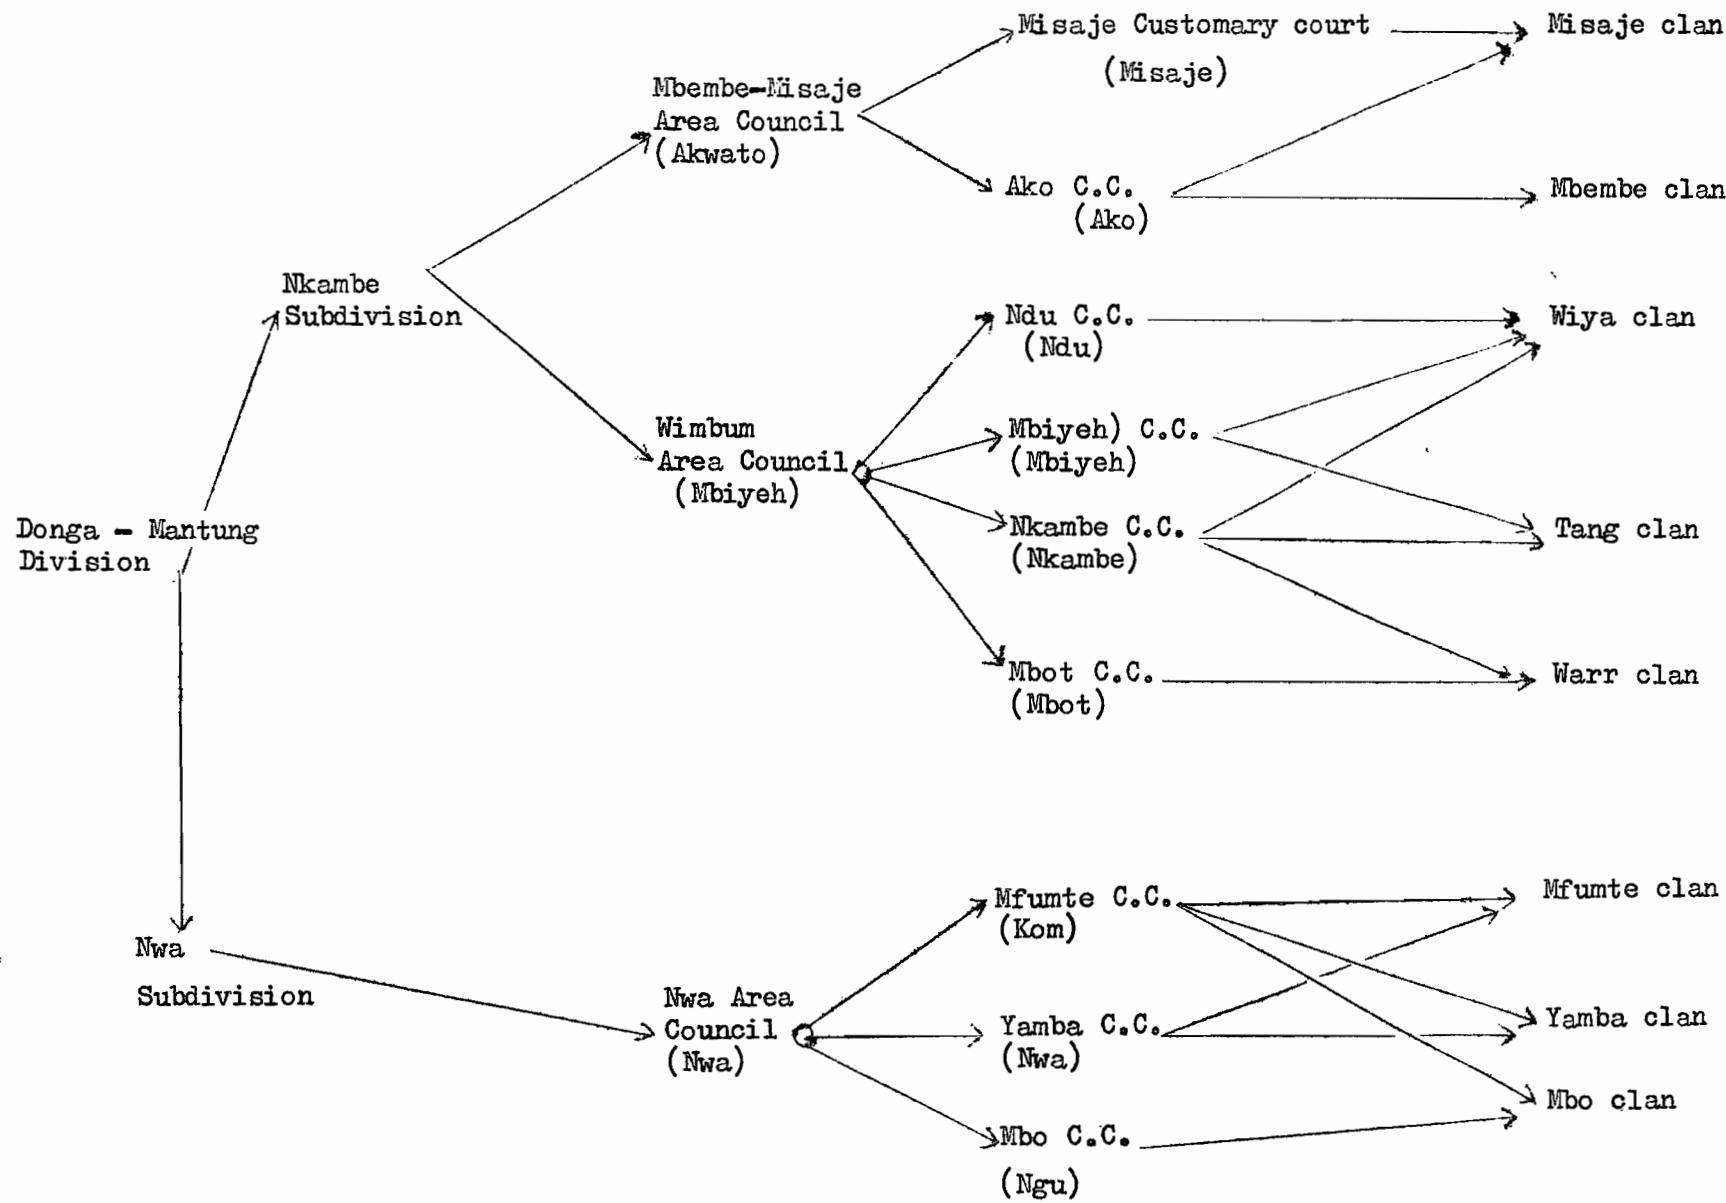

ADMINISTRATIVE ORGANIZATION

Nkambe division was firstly a division of the former Bamenda Province. In 1963 (decree No. 63/DF/250 of 26 July), the subdivision of Nwa set up and in 1966 (decree No. 66/DF/436 of 26 August), the subdivision of Nkambe.

The division received the new name of Donga and Nantung in 1968 (decree No. 68/DF/509 of 30 December). At the time of the administrative reorganization in 1972 (decree No. 72/DF/349 of 24 July), the former State of West Cameroon was divided into two Provinces : North West (chief town Bamenda) and South West, the first one including the division now known as Donga-Nantung.

There are three councils in the division, Mbembe-Misaje which has its head quarters at Akweto, and Wimbum at Mbiyeh, both being in Nkambe subdivision. Nwa council has the same jurisdiction as Nwa subdivision. The following chart completed by the names of customary courts and clans summarizes this administrative organization.
